All medical record requests shall be made in writing through a properly executed Authorization for Release of Medical Record Information form. Reimbursement to the physician for providing a copy of medical records from electronic to paper format will be a flat fee of $15.00 per record based on an average cost per record calculation. The fee for transmitting records in electronic format, if possible, will be a flat fee of $6.50 per record. A special handling fee of an additional $20.00 may be charged if the records must be delivered to the patient or authorized representative within forty-eight (48) hours of the request.

Fees for providing copies to attorneys and/or authorized third parties are in accordance with RI Code of Regulations R5-37-MD/DO: Rules & Regulations Pertaining to Licensure and Discipline of Physicians 11.2 (d)

The healthcare provider shall ensure that the copies are transmitted (mailed) within 30 days after receiving a valid written request. An additional 30 days is permitted under federal regulations if an explanation is provided regarding the reason for the delay.
